Important Meeting Concerning Cemetery Called Sunday At Bank

The Secretary of the Hamlin Cemetery Association announces that this Sunday, July 1, at 3:00 o'clock, a very important meeting of all who are interested in the keeping and expansion of East Cemetery to meet at the Banking rooms to discuss what should be done.

One thing which will be discussed is "Getting a water line to the Cemetery."

Another thing, "Getting one paid keeper for the Cemetery" all the time.

Next pressing thing: "Acquiring more acreage for the Cemetery."

All of these things are so necessary right at once, and NOW is the time to take action. Interested? Who is not interested in a cemetery? No use here to tell you why; you know why, and everything mentioned in this call is badly needed. Be at the BANK SUNDAY at 3:00 P. M.

WELCOME TO HAMLIN

This week we have the notice that Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Young have sold their Cleaning and Pressing Plant to Leo N. Roberts, recently of Abilene, but really a Haskell boy. Mr. Roberts has a wife and one son, James Lee, age five years. His father, an elderly gentleman who has spent many years in Haskell, will make his home with his son and will assist in the shop.

Leo Roberts is not altogether a stranger in Hamlin. He worked for Jesse Young a short while in 1940-41, before he entered the army. He is getting a good business, and here is hoping he will help make Hamlin a better town.

F. & M. Bank Directors Elect New Cashier

CLYDE R. ANGEL
of Big Spring, Texas

This will introduce to the Hamlin community the new Cashier of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Hamlin. At a directors' meeting on June 14, Mr. Clyde R. Angel, a banker of Big Spring, Texas, was chosen.

Mr. Angel and his wife and nine year old son, Robert Tate, moved to Hamlin last week and are making their home with Mrs. J. W. Ezell, on Union Avenue.

Mr. Angel is a banker of considerable experience, having been with the First National Bank of Big Spring the past sixteen and one half years. But going back to his early days, we learn that he was born and reared on a farm near Rising Star, Texas, and graduated from the high school of that place. Later he attended a business college in Abilene, and began his banking experience in the Rising Star State Bank. His wife is the former Miss Annie Matt Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W.

Hamlin School Board Announces Election of New Superintendent

The Hamlin School Board announces the election of Mr. I. R. Huchingson as Superintendent of the Hamlin Schools. Mr. Huchingson comes to Hamlin, from Roscoe, where he has served as superintendent of the Roscoe schools for the past ten years. He plans to move with his family to Hamlin about July 10 and is interested in finding a place at this time where he can live.

Mr. Huchingson is attending school this summer in Texas Technological College at Lubbock, completing the residence requirements and thesis for his Master's degree. Mrs. Huchingson and daughter, eleven years old, are remaining in Roscoe, until the time when they may locate in Hamlin.

Mr. Huchingson comes to Hamlin with an exceptional record behind him. He has established himself professionally as one of the best known superintendents in West Texas. The Roscoe schools have developed their physical equipment to an excellent state under his administration. The scholastic rating with the State Department of Education has been very high, and the general records of that school under his leadership are of the best.

The Hamlin School Board feels that the ground work is laid for some extensive improvements in the Hamlin schools and they feel sure

Tate, of Lubbock.

Mr. Angel comes to Hamlin with generous expressions of appreciation of his citizenship in all places where he has resided. As such a citizen, the Hamlin community welcomes Mr. Angel and his wife and son to this city. They will find here in Hamlin many valuable assets that will build for them happiness and contentment as the years go along. From the information at hand in the way of introduction, Mr. Angel will help make this little city a better place because of his standards of citizenship.

Mr. Angel began his active services in the F. & M. Bank Monday, June 25. As Cashier, he will occupy the front office desk and be the general front banker and public relations man and also will assist the clerical force. This will mean much to the President of the Bank, Mr. Tate May, and to Mr. W. C. Russell, who, since September 1944, has been Vice President and Cashier. During the past rushing months, these "boys" have had their hands full and have done a great job. A man of the experience and standing of Mr. Angel, to take up the duties of Cashier, will give Mr. May and Mr. Russell added time for many banking features that were forbidden them with short help.

Miss Lennie Greenway, through her own choice, remains as Assistant Cashier of the bank, a position she has so well filled for several years. Miss Greenway might be termed a "woman pioneer" in banking activities. She began with the First National Bank back in 1918 and has proved her worth in every position she has held. It would hardly be "Hamlin" if Miss Greenway were not at the bank window to bid welcome to her customers, whether they come to deposit money or get the cash. So again the "New Cashier" comes to help bear many of the responsibilities once carried by a woman.

It is something to "crow over" Big Spring, that we have secured one of her old reliables to help operate Hamlin's bank. But one does not have to talk with Mr. Angel long till it is clear that he hated to pull away from his close friends and associates of long standing in Big Spring. But in Hamlin, it will not be long till our big hearted ranchers, farmers and business men and all fellows will find the new Cashier just one of us, just another farm boy doing his share in the world of finance.

The Herald might say here that the F. & M. National Bank showed as of June 13, 1944, total assets of $1,824,509.18; and on June 13, 1945, the total assets were $2,929,684.61—an increase of $1,105,175.43. This is a remarkable showing, one that even a big city bank could well be proud of. It is not expected that every twelve months this rate will be kept up, but it does show extra growth in the banking world.

MRS. C. F. BUTCHER NOT WITH RED CROSS SINCE MOVING TO STONEWALL CO.

Mrs. C. F. Butcher, who has served so long as Local Chairman of the Jones County Red Cross Chapter at Hamlin, requests the Herald to announce that she is no longer connected in any capacity with the Jones County Red Cross, because she has moved out of the county into Stonewall County to live at the Shell Pipe Line Station.

Mrs. Butcher says she would be glad if some suitable person would volunteer to do the important Red Cross Chairman's work in Hamlin. In the meantime, she asks you not to call her phone or ask for any help from her, but call Miss Ruby Lee Brooks, 671, Stamford, and all that the County Red Cross can do, will be done for you, gladly.

Two Cookers Available To Canners Now

There are two cookers available to the public, free for the asking at the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, according to Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Secretary. If canners will prepare their fruits or vegetables, before taking out the cookers, a one day service should be long enough time for any one person to keep them out, thus making them available for many canners.

Because of our confidence in the Hamlin community and because we feel that we have been most fortunate in acquiring the services of such a man as Mr. Huchingson, and because we know that the addition of this man and his family to our town will materially benefit our community, we take considerable pleasure in announcing his election to and acceptance of this very important and responsible position.

Lt. Robert L. Fowler Arrives From Germany

As far as the Herald knows, the last Hamlin boy, prisoner of the Germans, has arrived home safely and soundly. He is Second Lieutenant Robert L. Fowler, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Fowler.

Lieutenant Fowler reached Hamlin last week direct from Europe, coming by way of boat to New York, then to San Antonio, and to Hamlin. Up to Thursday of this week, Lt. Fowler has been hard to interview. To be at home with his mother and father, and his sister, Miss Louise Fowler, who came in Monday night from Washington City, where she is engaged in government work, all this was enough to make the young officer cling close to his home. What else could a young man wish for, after being in places Lt. Fowler has seen after being forced down right in the middle of a German Army camp Dec. 20, 1943.

The short conversation we had with Fowler tells that he and his original crew on a big B-17, were assigned to bomb a certain target over Germany, and engine trouble started just before they reached the target area, but they kept on, then encountered flak and were shot up pretty badly. Finally they had to leave the formation, and were jumped by eight German fighters, five went down from the American guns, and perhaps another was crippled. At that point two P-51's came in and drove off the others.

By then, their plane was in bad shape, and they tried to make it across to England, but could not operate so as to turn left, so they thought of Sweden, but then the ship began to lose altitude and the crew began to bale out. The only man lost was the navigator, the first out. Lt. Fowler, being co-pilot at the time, was next to the last out. He said he landed smack into a German Army camp, and the Germans thought he was one of their men, and even before they knew differently, they had helped him with his chute. As they got closer, however, the "US" so prominent on his "Mae West" made them back up and demand his pistol, which he did not have. Then began his long trip to a prison camp, by way of Frankfurt on the Main, finally by train up through Berlin to Camp Stalag Luft 1, located far up on the Baltic. There he remained till May 3, 1943, when the camp was overrun by the Russians and the prisoners were liberated. By May 22, he reached England safe and well.

SINGER BREAKS ARM

Some weeks ago in the Herald, the Rev. E. L. Yeats announced that W. S. Thomson would lead the singing during the revival at the Methodist Church. Last week, Mr. Thomson had a rare accident. He cranked his tractor for the first time in his life, and it "kicked" back and broke the arm that does the "waving" in his singing. The singer, who is a Presbyterian, says, "Shucks, that's all right. I don't sing with my arm any way." You see, it takes a Presbyterian singer to help a Presbyterian evangelist. Some more about Thomson—he is one of the few old timer, jolly men, who has retained his fun and faith. He can use his left arm to keep the Methodist folks in "tune."

What this modest, young Hamlin officer went through and endured is a story that not many will hear. He is so charmed to be back in his home land with loved ones, in peace and plenty, he does not care to talk too much about the past.

Congratulations, Lt. Fowler. Here is trusting that before many months your brother, Paul A. Fowler, Jr., Seaman 1/c, will come home safely from the Pacific and join in your happiness.

'MODERN CLEANERS'

—We greet the people of the Hamlin community with a firm determination to render them a service in Cleaning, Pressing, and Alterations, that will truly be justifiable in renaming our plant the "MODERN CLEANERS." We recognize the high quality of work turned out by our friend, and former "boss," Mr. Jess Young, and we shall strive to come up to what his shop has done in the past.

—We lived in Hamlin in 1940-41, working for Jess Young, and left to enter the Army. I have come back to Hamlin to live, because I like this place. I solicit your tailoring business with the hope that we all can go along in a prosperous way. Come by and visit us.

WE ARE KEEPING OPEN ALL SUMMER

Staff Sgt. Jack Miller Died June 9 In Germany

The shocking, sad news came to Mr. and Mrs. James T. (Pat) Miller Saturday afternoon that their son, Staff Sgt. Jack Miller, a paratrooper, had died in Germany on June 9. If their son had ever been wounded or ill, they had not learned it.

Even the past Monday, the parents received two letters from Jack, the latest one dated May 20, and his girl friend had received one dated May 26, and everything seemed to be fine with him. He probably had a move in mind, however, as he said in one, "Mother, it will be some time before you hear from me again, but don't worry." At that time he enclosed some snapshots of himself and two or three buddies, giving their home addresses.

Sgt. Miller was in the 507th Parachute Infantry, 17th Airborne. He was born in Hamlin June 29, 1921, lived here all of his life, and graduated from Hamlin High School in 1940. On October 2, 1940, he enlisted and was placed in the 77th Field Artillery, Medical Detachment. He transferred to the paratroopers, Dec. 10, 1942. He trained at Camp Bowie; Ft. Benning, Ga.; Barksdale, La.; and Alliance, Kan. He went overseas in December 1943 and landed in North Ireland. His paratroop unit was one of the first to land in Normandy, for which feat they received the Presidential Unit Citation. He held the Good Conduct medal.

The father of this young man was a member of the old 36th Division, in World War I, being in Co. L of the 144th Infantry. He saw service on the old Hindenburg Line. He knows doubly what war means for a young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller say they never knew of their son being ill, even a day. He had gone through all the "firsts" on the Normandy Beach, across the Rhine with the British, and was never wounded as far as they know. Sympathy is extended to the parents and sister, Miss Betty Jane Miller.

The letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Miller on Thursday morning, giving a little information concerning their son's death, reads in part: "It is my sad duty to inform you that your son, Technician Third Grade Jack Miller passed away in our hospital early this morning (June 9). He was thrown from a moving jeep on 6 June 1945 and brought to us in an unconscious state, from which he never recovered." The letter was written by Chaplain Warren C. Vining, Jr., of the 135th Evacuation Hospital.

Eral Ray Reported Lost On Jap Prison Ship

Cpl. Eral Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ray of the Hodges, Jones County, community, and formerly of Hamlin, has been reported lost on the much talked of Jap Prison ship which was sunk by submarine action about 200 miles off the coast of China Oct. 24, 1944, while the ship was carrying prisoners of war from the Philippines to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray had received two cards from Eral since he was taken prisoner at the fall of Bataan.

It is reported that 1,775 prisoners were on the ship and only about nine were saved. Five reached the China coast and four were picked up by a Jap boat.

Eral had been in service since February 1941, and after training at Ft. Bliss, he sailed for the Philippines. Eral attended Hamlin High School about two years, before he transferred to Anson where he was graduated in 1939.

Memorial services were held at Hodges Baptist Church, Sunday, June 24. For the services, a picture of Eral was placed on a table in front of the flower-banked altar. Dr. E. B. Atwood, assisted by Rev. David Calhoun, both of Abilene, and O. L. Jenkins, of Hamlin, conducted the services.

Music was under the direction of Walter Cook, and special music was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Agnew of Hamlin.

Mrs. Brad Rowland returned on Thursday of last week from Fort Knox, Ky., where she visited her husband, Pvt. Brad Rowland, who is taking basic training as a tank driver. She reports the "old" soldier as fit and fine. The Army can't find a thing wrong with Brad, but every time he wants to do anything, they say he is "too old." The ex-postal clerk is making a splendid soldier and is taking tough training that has gotten many a younger man "down."

About Soldiers--Sailors

SOLDIERS & SAILORS, so many of you are coming home now just for a short while and many to stay a long time, and some with discharges from the service, that it is hard for the Herald to know just who is so fortunate, or when and whence you came or what you have been doing. . . . The Herald wants to report to your friends something about you. . . . you deserve more than anyone can do for you, but somebody must help us get the facts. . . . Help us to know who is at home, where you are from and something about you. . . . Parents, brothers and sisters, wives, even sweethearts, want to see something in the press about the ones they love. . . . so you folks, kin of service boys and girls, you can help, too. . . . and the Herald will then do its part.

S-Sgt. William R. Wells Died In Germany

Many friends sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wells and their family who seem to be having more than their share of sadness from this war.

The War Department sent a message last Saturday to the wife of Staff Sgt. William R. Wells in Manchester, N. H., that her husband had died on June 4, 1945, in Germany. The message reached Hamlin Sunday afternoon, to find that Mr. and Mrs. Wells were in San Antonio with another son, who is seriously ill from a brain infection.

Sgt. Wells was a cook in the Air Forces, and had been in the Army about five years. He was 24 years of age. Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife and one son, age 18 months, of Manchester, N. H.; three brothers and one sister, E. C. Wells in San Antonio; Harold Wells of Lordsburg, New Mexico; Aaron Wells and Miss Marian Wells, of Hamlin.

It will be recalled that Pvt. Reginald Wells was killed in Italy a year ago last May 28. The deep sympathy of all friends of this family is again extended to them in this recurring hour of death.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells are expected to return from San Antonio this Friday if the condition of their son will permit.

Cpl. J. R. Reynolds is coming home this week from Camp Hood, where he has been serving in the Ordnance Section, of the 1848th Service Unit. Cpl. Reynolds merits his discharge and he has got it. He has served in the Army four years last May 5, and 27 months of it was spent in New Guinea. He received his honorable discharge on Points. Congratulations, "old" soldier! You have done better than you think, and more for your country than can ever be repaid.

Captain Frank Hillier called his parents Wednesday from Boston, Mass., to say he was back in the States and was on his way to Knight's Ferry, Calif., to see his wife and the little 10-months-old son whom he has never seen. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hillier will leave this week for California for a visit with their son and his family.

Two happy sailors—Vestal L. Townley, AM 1/c, and Carl D. Andress, ACRM, arrived this week from across the Atlantic for a few weeks at home. Both of these young fellows have been too busy "getting acquainted" to permit an interview, so about all the Herald can tell on them is that they are here having a busy, good time.

Wounded In Action

Pvt. Raymond Elkins, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elkins, has arrived in California and is hospitalized from wounds. He revealed that on Okinawa, on June 9th, he was wounded severely by a Jap sniper. He said he was behind a rock, thinking himself safe, when "whing" hit him, and when he woke up, he was in a hospital with a gash across the top of his head, and his left hand and arm were paralyzed. He did not tell his family of the wound until after ten days. He is evidently recovering, for he was able to phone his wife at Stamford.

Mr. Elkins also reports that another son, Guy Lloyd, Gunner's Mate in the Navy, is in a hospital in Oakland, Calif., with some form of trouble which will detain him there several weeks.

WOUNDED SECOND TIME

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newland have received information that their son, Sgt. Milbourne (Bo) Newland, was wounded on Okinawa, June 10. This is the second time this soldier has been wounded in the fighting on this island—the first time was slight. He is in some hospital in the Marianas.

Lieutenant (jg) Gene M. Griswold, a Navy flyer, and his wife of Dallas, came to Hamlin Wednesday to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Tex Moore and her husband, Cowboy Artist, Tex Moore. Lt. Griswold has spent 14 months in the Pacific. He arrived in the States on June 16. He wears four battle stars for the Pacific and one star for the Philippines, and has been awarded the Air Medal and the Distinguished flying Cross. This young couple will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Moore till Monday.

Gordon Bennett Retires As School Supt. To Enter Private Business

GORDON R. BENNETT

The call of private business has been getting stronger and stronger for Gordon R. Bennett, the past year or more, and as this month of June passes by, so does his long and successful service as school superintendent in Hamlin come to an end.

It has been known for many weeks, without publicity, that Mr. Bennett had resigned as Superintendent in Hamlin and was to enter a private business in this city.

Mr. Bennett cannot expect to escape many calls of his community in the years to come. He must find time to render further service in many official capacities which his training and experience qualify him so well to perform. He will carry satisfying memories of the years he has spent in school work in Hamlin, and there will always be a peculiar solicitude for the boys and girls he has seen grow to maturity.

Recite Wedding Vows

Mrs. Brennie McCleary and Mr. Evert Crow were married Tuesday evening, June 19, at the home of Rev. B. J. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Martin reading the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a black ensemble with white accessories.

Attending the ceremony were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Potter; her daughter, Miss Peggy Jo McCleary; a sister of the groom, Mrs. Cecil Ferguson, of San Antonio; Miss Valeta Crow, and Mrs. Maurice Crow.

Mr. and Mrs. Crow will make their home in Hamlin and have bought a home on Tenth Street, near the Ball Park. Mr. Crow, an ex-service man who served in the Navy in 1942-43, is associated with his brother in the Crow Bros. Grocery.

Miss Frankie Jo Andrews visited the past week with her aunt, Mrs. Jayroe, and friends in McCaulley. Miss Belenda Maberry, of Dallas, returned home with her for a few days' visit.

Alathean Class Picnic

Members of the Alathean Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a picnic at the City Park Thursday evening, June 21.

The teacher, Mrs. M. Y. Wilson, who has been ill for sometime, was present. A prayer was given by her. A number of games was played, and new Secret Pals were drawn.

Those attending were Mes. Wilson, R. A. Crockett, assistant teacher; Delma Shelburne, Alton Mayfield, Grace Odom, P. D. Harkins, Walter Sneed, John Walton, Alton Clemmer, Nelson Lowe, and one guest, Mrs. Lola Harbert.

Mrs. Ralph Brown and baby, Barbara Ann, returned this week to their home in Borger after a two weeks visit here with her mother, Mrs. O. R. Shelton.

Miss Juanell and Donald Choate spent the past week in Graham visiting relatives.

Hamlin Over the Top In 7th War Loan Drive

Since Tuesday night of this week, Hamlin community has been drifting along with a feeling again of having done what was expected of it in the way of meeting its quota of War Bonds. The quota of $137,500.00 in E Bonds has been passed and still the dead-line is not here until Saturday night.

Buying government bonds is good business, not only to help win this hard war, but to save and increase one's holdings. Don't be surprised. There will be another bond drive, and maybe two or three more before the Japs are beaten into unconditional surrender... So it will take more and more bonds, bullets and blood to complete the job.

Miss Mary Beth Bowman visited her sister, Mrs. T. E. Coleman, in Fort Worth the past week. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith as they returned to their home in Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Fraser and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clinton Fraser, Jr., came up from their home in the Rio Grande Valley last Saturday and spent the week end here with old friends while on their way to California to visit their daughter. Mr. Fraser was formerly Cashier of the First State Bank in Hamlin. Recently he had a slight stroke, but is slowly recovering.

'Think on these things'

A Divine Septuple

We wish to present this week the first, of a series of three meditations on the above topic.

"I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. With all lowliness and meekness, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." (Eph. 4:1-6)

The apostle says there is one God, one Lord, one Spirit, one body, one faith, one baptism, one hope. In a strange way he named the number seven. Seven is a sacred Bible number. We read of the seven golden candlesticks in the book of Revelation; we read of the seven churches of Asia; we read of the beast of prophecy having seven heads and ten horns. Seven is indeed a sacred number. Under this heading we have a summation of the religion of Christ. While there might be other headings under which Christianity could be arranged, these seven are sufficient. Everything in the religion of Christ can be classified under one of these headings. When the Bible speaks of one God, it means there is but one. He is the everlasting Father, the Creator, the omnipotent and the omniscient God. There is no other in all the universe. When the apostle mentions the one Lord, he means there is only one Lord and Savior. Christ is pictured for us under the heading of the lily of the valley, the bright and morning star. He is called the Sun of righteousness who should arise with healing in his beams. He is the lion of the tribe of Judah. He is the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world. He is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. He is Prophet and Priest and King. As a prophet, he speaks from God; as a priest, he meditates between mankind and Deity; and as a king, he reigns over the kingdom of the Lord. He is the Emmanuel—that is, God with us. He is called the Son of man. He is the prototype of unfulfilled humanity. He is the archetypal man. In Him, our humanity reaches its apex in glory of ideals and beauty of life. As the Son of man, he is representative of all that is best in our frail humanity; and as the Son of God, he unites the highest and the lowest. He is, therefore, the mediator between God and man. In I Tim. 2:5, the apostle Paul said: "There is one God, one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." There is no other, and no human being, it makes no difference how great his dignity nor how hoary with age his position, has any right to interpose himself between you and God. Jesus only has that right. He is the only mediator.

The Holy Spirit is the third person in the Godhead. Deity is a trichotomy. The Holy Spirit is a divine being, as God and Christ are divine beings. God, the Creator, designed man's redemption. Jesus Christ mediated it and died to bring it about. The Holy Spirit comes into the scene for man's salvation by guiding the apostles into all truth and through them revealing the clear outline of the New Testament church. The Holy Spirit is the revealer of the plan of life. Through the apostles he gave orally first the religion of the New Testament, and then, by inspiring men to write it, the Holy Spirit put the religion of Christ into a permanent record. Jesus told the apostles that the Spirit should take his words and show them unto them. He said that the Spirit would bring all things to their remembrance, whatsoever he had said unto them. The apostles were not left at liberty to set up the religion of Christ and to work in the establishment of the church independent of the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Their wills were made subservient to the will of Christ by the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Hence, when the apostles preached, it was the Holy Spirit preaching through them. They spake "with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." The Holy Spirit had a definite part in the completion and the promulgation of the religion of Jesus. So in the first three mentioned in this text of Eph. 4, God and Christ and the Holy Spirit moved as one being. In the long-range view of divine providence no single distinction can be made between the work of any two. That is why it is said in I John 5 that there are three who bear record in heaven—The Father, the Word, and the Spirit—and these three are one.

Attend the Church of Christ. Bring the whole family.

Yes, a penny goes a long, long way when it's spent for electricity. When you compare what you get to what you pay for almost anything else you realize your monthly electric service expenditure continues to pay bigger and bigger dividends in service. POT-SHOTS FROM McCauley

BY GEO DARDEN

Jay Ruth Hendon, of the U. S. Navy, has purchased the home of Mrs. Etta Stephenson in McCauley. The Stephenson residence is McCauley's finest. We are glad for Mr. and Mrs. Hendon, but are mighty sorry to lose Mrs. Stephenson from our community.

Mrs. Whitley, mother of Leslie Whitley of McCauley, died in California last week. Burial was in the McCauley cemetery last Friday.

O. T. Hennington was rushed to a Stamford hospital last Wednesday, suffering from a severe case of rheumatism.

Celebrated our 20th Wedding Anniversary on June 21st by staying at home and canning peaches. Twenty years is a long time to live with one "blonde" and keep on loving her, but that's the "score thus far."

On a tour of the South Plains, Tuesday, June 19, Ben Maberry, Levi McCollum, and George Darden visited Lamesa, Slaton, Lubbock and other South Plains towns. It was plenty dry; maybe so they'll get a rain before this goes to press.

We notice that a lot of strikers all over the U. S. were idle last week—over perhaps petty grievances. If they should all get fired and have to hoe cotton, head maize, and pull bolls for a while, we think maybe production wouldn't lag—when and if they ever got their jobs back.

The singers of this community have decided to meet at the Baptist Church each Wednesday night. It will be more convenient for everybody. Come and tell your friends.

Subscriptions this week come from S. E. Miers, Joe Miers of the Seabees, Mrs. Joe Miers of Midland, Ga. and Mrs. Luther Maberry. Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Darden, of Fort Worth, visited last Sunday in the home of brother, Geo. Darden and family in McCauley.

Mrs. George Bond, of Lubbock, is visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Webb, in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin have returned from Fort Worth after a two weeks visit with relatives in that city.

Louie Jones from Lubbock was in McCauley last week end visiting with relatives and shopping around for an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Williams will move soon to Cooper, Texas, to make their home. For the past year, they have lived in an apartment in the home of Mrs. Stephenson.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick visited children in Crosbyton and Spur last week end.

A cutting scrape, whereas a Negro woman slashed the mid-section of a Negro man, sending him to the hospital in a serious condition, happened in McCauley last Saturday night. An "East Dallas Special" in the hands of an enraged dark woman spells blood and thunder.

McCauley H. D. Club

The McCauley Home Demonstration Club met in an all day meeting, Wednesday, June 20, at the school lunch room to test cookers and learn the most desirable methods of preparing foods for cold storage lockers.

Eighteen cookers were tested, after which a covered dish luncheon was served.

Beginning at one o'clock, Mrs. Geraldine McCullough, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Johnny Mason, FSA Supervisor, gave helpful demonstrations on the preparation and storing of fruits, vegetables, and poultry in freezer lockers. This method of preserving food is the most desirable for most foods, because more of the original flavor, texture, and nutritional value of the fresh product is retained. The first and most important factor is the choice of good quality products, uniform in maturity, properly handled and stored in good, air-tight, moisture- and vapor-proof containers, quick freezing, and storage at near zero temperature with correct humidity.

In the business meeting, plans were made for the club's participation in the annual county-wide club encampment to be held July 26 at Roby Park. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Levi McCollum, who arranged for storage and delivery of pineapple to club members.

The July meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Geo. Darden, with Mrs. Frank Jackson serving as co-hostess. The subject of this meeting will be "Summer Desserts With Less Sugar."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
